

THIS SIDE OUT.

If one were to judge by the frantic rejoicings of the nullifying federalists over the election of their Governor, they would appear but "children of a larger growth;" for really, they cut such wild antics, as fairly to out-jump "Jim Crow." Legerdemain is stripped of half its wonders; the "spotted pig" party have as effectually jumped out of their skins, as ever did the veriest Necromancer in Christendom. And we would advise the "Register," and its nullifying federal leaders, to mark their men, "this side out, with care," or, most assuredly, they will not be able to swear to the identity of half their forces by next November.

Whiggery versus Temperance Societies.

On Saturday last, a great federal whig feast "came off" near Hillsboro, Orange county. How many bullocks, sheep, swine, ducks and possums, were sacrificed to the obsequious joy of the nullifiers and federalists there congregated, behold it is not written in the Chronicles of Whiggery—(the "Register.") After a quantum sufficit of victuals and liquor had been devoured, we understand the nullifying forces most valiantly attacked Democracy and Van Buren; and after much "ammunition for the stomach" had been expended, Don Quixote like, Whiggery appeared "alone in its glory," for not a Democrat had been near them!

Saints and Sinners appear to have mingled promiscuously in this revelry; and we opine the ranks of the temperance societies must have been sadly thinned amidst the streams of strong drink which flowed on the occasion.

It appears that Whiggery has likewise been feasting itself in Fayetteville, Onslow &c. Every where it "keeps its spirits up by pouring the spirits down." Very well, gentlemen nullifiers and federalists; "eat, drink, and be merry, for [in November] ye die"—politically.

RAIL ROAD CONVENTION—VIRGINIA.

A meeting of Delegates from Prince Edward, Charlotte, Nottaw and Amelia counties, the town of Farmville, and the city of Richmond, took place at Charlotte court-house on the 5th inst. to consider the propriety of constructing a Rail Road from Danville in Pennsylvania, to Farmville, in Prince Edward. Col. Clement Carrington was chosen President of the Convention. About 40 delegates were in attendance. The result of the deliberations was, a recommendation by the Convention for the construction of a Rail Road from the town of Farmville to Danville; another from Richmond to Farmville, thence to Lynchburg; and another from the town of Farmville to Petersburg. A committee was appointed to raise a fund in Prince Edward and Charlotte, to defray the expense of surveying a route for the rail road from Farmville to Danville. These proceedings speak well for the public spirit and enterprise of our neighbors in Virginia.

A rail-road Convention is to assemble at Salisbury in this State, on the 10th of October. We hope something efficient may be done at this convocation; that the recommendations and efforts of the members may concentrate on some one practical scheme, and push it to a completion.

Hon. HENRY L. PINCKNEY is a candidate for re-election to Congress from Charleston. He is a nullifier; but the ULTRAS of that class of political heretics denounce Mr. P. for his success in Congress last winter, in defeating their incendiary efforts to form a coalition with the abolition fanatics, for the purpose of agitating the whole country, and rending the Union asunder; they have accordingly started Isaac E. Holmes, esq. a nullifier of the mad-cap stamp, in opposition to Mr. Pinckney.

And we observe that Hugh S. Legare, esq. late Minister to Belgium, is announced a candidate of the Union Party.

NEW FLOUR.

Complaints are made in the Valley of Virginia, that the bread made from the new crop of wheat is unwholesome; and it is recommended in the Winchester Virginian, that great care should be taken to clean the wheat of bad grains before it is sent to mill, and that the bread be eaten cold. To the last recommendation the editor of the Standard would beg to add the weight of his own belief, sustained by many years' experience, that all hot bread is deleterious to health—the cold article being much more wholesome, and even more palatable, after twelve months experience.

In North-Carolina, as in most other sections of the Union, the crop of wheat is not only short, but the grains of what little has been saved is very defective. We have heard it suggested by many experienced persons, that winnowing the wheat before sending it to mill, is the best method of cleansing it of bad grains.

Dr. FRANKLIN CANNON, recently elected Lieutenant Governor of Missouri, by a majority of about 3000 over his nullifying opponent, is a native of Cabarrus county, in this State; where his many relations and friends cherish a remembrance of his manly virtues, and rejoice in the advancement of his fortunes.

Dr. Cannon was one of the Vice Presidents of the Baltimore Democratic Convention; and his election by so large a majority, is a flattering approval, by the freemen of Missouri, of the Doctor's course in that body, as well as of the labors of the body itself.

Mr. FORSYTH, the Secretary of State, is prevented, by indisposition, from attending to the duties of his office.

Mr. Cass, the Secretary of War, has visited New York, with a view making arrangements for his departure to France.

Mr. BUTLER, the Attorney General, will act as the responsible head of the War Department for the remaining term of the present administration.—Nor. Bea.

The prisons of France, by a late census, contain 12,440 men, 3,638 women, and 97 under 16 years of age.

COL. AARON BURE.

Formerly Vice President of the United States, died on Staten Island, in the Bay of New York, on Wednesday of last week, 14th inst. aged 81 years. He has filled a large space in the history of the country, and was among the most noted of those who figured upon the political stage, more than thirty years gone by. It were well for his fame, could a veil be drawn over some of his acts. We shall give some further accounts of his life and death, hereafter. It is stated that Matthew L. Davis, Esq. of New York, has, for some time past, been engaged with Col. B. in preparing a biography of that celebrated man; whose career has been so eventful; we suppose the book must now soon be forthcoming.

PRESIDENCY.—We were wrong, in our last, in giving the vote of Maryland to Harrison. Of the aggregate vote of the people of that State, at the recent election, we have in another place stated that the Van Buren candidates received about 3000 majority, which is evidence conclusive that the electoral vote of the State will be given to Mr. Van Buren in November.

LOUISIANA, which we last week placed to the credit of Judge White, has elected a majority of Van Buren members to her Legislature; which is a pretty sure indication that the State will go for Van Buren in the fall.

Melancholy Suicide.—PETER BACOT, Esq. formerly Cashier of U. S. Branch Bank at Charleston, committed suicide in New York, at the City Hotel, 31st ult. in a state of temporary insanity. He had sustained through life an unblemished reputation, and had just been unanimously appointed Cashier of the Morris Canal Bank in New York, with a salary of $5000 per annum. It is supposed that his deep regret at leaving Charleston, the home of his early years, the scene of all his enjoyments, the land where his affections were centered, was too much for his sensitive feelings; and that his mind yielded to the heavy pressure.

SALEM, 3d Sept. 1836. Mr. White—Sir: You are mistaken when in your paper of the 25th ult. you say, in substance, that I am pledged to vote as my immediate district may do, in the coming election for President and Vice President. The only pledge I have given, is an oft-repeated public and private declaration of my intention (should the election of President devolve on the House of Representatives) to conform in my vote to the voice of my State, as expressed in the Electoral College. This course I have long since determined on; not only from a conviction that it is right in principle so to act, but also out of respect to the opinion which both you and I entertained in 1824—25. Our complaint then was, that notwithstanding the people of our State had, through the electoral college, declared for Gen. Jackson, a majority of our representation in Congress disregarded their instruction, and gave the vote of the State to Mr. Crawford.

If you do not, I am sure that some of your most intimate political friends, know full well my determination (however unfashionable it may be at this day) to be consistent with myself in relation to this and other political questions, which were agitated about the period that I have referred to.

I doubt not that you will do me the kindness to correct the error to which I advert, either by a publication of this note, or a simple editorial notice of the mistake. Your ob't serv't.

A. H. SHEPPERD.

[We were absent when the article advertised to by our honorable friend from Stokes, appeared. But notwithstanding our long acquaintance, and former political association with Mr. SHEPPERD, and however well apprised we thought we had been of the principles which he and ourselves contended for in 1824—25, in behalf of Jackson and Democracy—we find we have been at fault in judging what, according to his interpretation, is meant by a Representative's obeying the will of his constituents. It however rests between Mr. Shepperd and his immediate constituents, to settle the point, whether he is to obey their voice, or follow the dictum of some other district or districts in the State.

If the Editor of the Standard is not wrong in his reminiscences, it was his greatest complaint in 1824—5, and so, he thought, it was of Mr. Shepperd also—that several of our Members reversed in Congress, not only the vote of the State, but that of the people in their immediate districts.]

VAN BUREN ELECTORS.

Upon the Electoral ticket nominated by the Republicans of North Carolina, is the name of ROBERT LOVE, who is said to have voted in the electoral colleges for Jefferson, Madison, Monroe and Jackson. The same is true of a gentleman upon the Republican ticket for Virginia.—In this connection we may notice the names of NATHANIEL MACON, of North Carolina, and WILLIAM L. SMITH, of Alabama, who have consented to serve as Van Buren electors. These men, venerable for their age and virtues and the distinguished position they have so long maintained in the democratic party, are pillars of strength not only at home but throughout the Union; while the fact that they must have obtained an intimate knowledge of Mr. Van Buren from serving with him many years in the United States Senate, renders their support of him a rare and most honorable testimonial of his integrity, talents and Republican principles.

A Good one.—The Niagara Democrat says the whigs of Cadiz, Ohio, erected a liberty pole on the evening previous to the 4th of July. In the morning they were greatly surprised to find the flag taken down and in its stead a red petticoat, bearing the following motto:

"Wm. H. Harrison—reward of valor—if Croghan will fight, the blood be upon his own shoulders; I'll RUN."

Communication in defence of Col. JOHNSON, is received, and shall appear in due course.

A HERCULEAN TASK.—The Vermont Patriot, a spirited democratic Journal, says: "We shall endeavor to tell as many truths, as the whigs tell lies."

Substitution.—We have noticed a political calculation in the N. Y. Star, by the rule of substitution, and take the liberty of submitting the two following questions and answers, of a similar character:—Q. Take Judge White from Tennessee, and what is the remainder? Answer, Tennessee. Q. Take Tennessee from Judge White, what remains? Answer, Nothing. Missouri Democrat.

REMOVAL OF INDIANS.—A letter is published in the Washington Globe, from Gen. Jesup, dated at Tallahassee, 31st ult. which says:

"I have the satisfaction to inform you that the principal chief of the Creeks, Hopothle Yoholo, commenced his journey westward, with a band of about twenty-two hundred men, women and children. He will be joined at Wetumpka by three or four thousand more; and in the course of two weeks, I think the greater part of the nation will be in motion."

HEALTH OF CHARLESTON.

The special committee of the Board of Health report on the 10th, up to 1 clock P. M., 30 cases of Cholera—9 whites, 21 colored; 5 dead: cases reported yesterday convalescent.

Sept. 8. 22 cases of cholera; 5 whites, 17 colored; 3 dead. Of yesterday's cases, 3 more have died.

9. 10 cases of cholera; 3 whites, 7 colored; 2 dead. Of cases reported yesterday, 3 more dead.

Sept. 11. Eighteen cases cholera; 2 whites, 16 colored; 2 dead. Of cases reported yesterday, 5 more dead.

12. Fifteen cases cholera; 5 whites, 10 colored; no deaths.

13. 13 cases; 1 white, 12 colored; 2 deaths.

14. 11 cases; 2 whites, 9 colored; 2 deaths.

By proclamation of Gen. Hayne, Mayor of the City, Tuesday the 13th inst. was observed by the Citizens of Charleston, as a day of Fasting, Humiliation and Prayer, on account of the prevalence there of that modern plague, the cholera, which "walketh in darkness and wasteth at noon-day." Although the disease seems to be fearful in its spread, it seems not to be so fatal in its ravages as in other towns on former occasions.

Three thousand men for Texas.—Gen. Dunlap of Tennessee, is about to proceed to Texas at the head of the above number of men. The whole corps are now at Memphis. They will not, it is said, pass this way. Every man is completely armed, the corps having been originally raised for the Florida war. This force, we have no doubt, will be able to carry every thing before it.—[Vicksburg Reg. Aug. 11.]

IMPORTANT FROM SPAIN.

Capt. Farran of the brig Montevideo, arrived at New York, sailed from Cadiz 6th Aug. Capt. F. states, that on or about the 28th July, a rising of the whole population of Cadiz took place, who loudly demanded the proclamation of the Constitution of 1812, and being joined by a newly raised regiment of 1200 men strong, the Colonel in command of it, consented to comply with their demands, and with all the public functionaries, took the oaths required of them. "The population of Port St. Marys and Xerres, were preparing to follow the example of that of Cadiz."

The Queen's government, we are told, has become extremely unpopular, and to such a height has the dissatisfaction at her course of policy arisen, that no concession she can now make, will restore her to the public confidence. Isturiz, the new prime minister, is loudly denounced by the public voice. General Cordova is styled a traitor, and it is said his object is to deliver the English auxiliaries under Gen. Evans, into the hands of Don Carlos. The movements above mentioned took place under the cries of "Death to Cordova."

In connecting the name of Don Carlos with the Constitution of 1812, the people by no means act from attachment to him, but say they have no alternative.

POST OFFICES.

Col. John D. Hoke, formerly of Lincoln county in this State, has been appointed Postmaster at Jacksonville, Benton co. Alabama.

Fines.—Five dollars on Avery, Backus & Co, contractors on route No. 2101, N. C. Halifax to Fayetteville, for delivering, on the 3d ult., a wet mail at Louisville, N. C.

We once heard an ignorant fellow laughed at for saying "he lived in the United States of Pennsylvania," as having uttered something extremely ridiculous; but it was certainly not more so than the title granted to the mammoth brokers shop.—[The Lancaster Journal.]

Major Noah, of the New York Evening Star, admits that the vote of Pennsylvania, in October, "decides the fate of Van Buren"—that "New York and Virginia await the decision and follow the course of Pennsylvania." If so, the election of Mr. Van Buren is certain.

American Sentinel.

The Earl of Chesterfield is said to be the greatest owner of horses in Great Britain. He has 400 eating corn, besides those which he turned out to grass, which are pretty numerous. Some of the "sweepings" of his stables have been sold at Tattersall's several of which brought from 200 to 300 guineas each. One little mare brought 280 guineas.

Joseph Bonaparte has reached London in safety.

We learn that, in the ship Richmond Captain Lenox, arrived a few days since in Hampton Roads from Havre, were 176 emigrants, Swiss, German, and Bavarian, who are represented to be in excellent health, and the men stout, hearty fellows. Four births took place on the passage. The emigrants are bound to Baltimore. Norfolk Beacon.

FRIGHTENED TO DEATH.—The Troy N. York Whig says that a little girl aged eight years, the daughter of John Peterson, residing about five miles from Whitehall, was frightened in such manner, on Thursday last, that she died two hours after the fright. Her brother, a lad of 14, dressed himself in a dried bear's skin, and chased her as she was going to school.

ALL THE SALT IN THE WORLD.—The whole of the salt used throughout the world is equal to about six millions of tons and one quarter. The commercial navies of America, England, and France, (60,000 vessels,) could not convey a year's consumption of salt at £2 a ton. The yearly outlay for salt is £30,000,000.

WHEAT MARKET.—Wheat was worth $1.87 1/2 per bushel at Rochester on Saturday, and flour, $8.50 per barrel.

IRON STEAMBOAT.—An iron steamboat called the Cleveland, is employed on the river Mersey, in England, and is said to be superior in speed, strength, buoyance and steadiness to any wooden vessels of the same description. For any other than river navigation iron vessels cannot be employed, on account of their rendering the compass useless.

The contractors who have undertaken the removal of the Creek Indians, are advancing rapidly in their work. It is thought that in ten or fifteen days the bulk of the nation will be on their way to Arkansas.

The St. Francisville Journal says, that the Cotton in that district will be about an average crop.

The Grand Gulf Advertiser says, that the Cotton crop, for the present year, of each of the states of Alabama, Georgia and Mississippi, is estimated at 250,000 bales of 400 lbs.

Piety.—If the young man forgets his God, the old one will seldom find him in age: if in the pride and finish of health, we omit to call on the name of Him from whom we possess the vigor of life; in the hour of sickness, what comfort can we have in approaching his divine majesty? And if in the full enjoyment of every species of worldly prosperity, we neglect to pause in the midst of our enjoyment, to acknowledge the giver of all good gifts, with what heart can we in the hour of adversity, fly for protection to Divine Goodness.

NEWSPAPORIAL ACCOMMODATIONS.—"Mister Printer! I've come to the conclusion to patronize and take your paper at—"

"A very wise conclusion, sir."

"At least one quarter—just to try it."

"Always happy to accommodate, sir."

"And if I like it—"

"Oh! Yes! sir."

"That is, if I don't like it—"

"Either way, sir."

"I'll bring all the numbers back, when the quarter's up—gratis."

"Shan't we send for them, sir?"

The said memorial must also set forth whether the claimant, or any other who may have been at any time entitled to the amount claimed, or any part thereof, hath ever received any, and if any, what sum of money, or other equivalent or indemnification by way of insurance or otherwise, for loss or injury sustained, satisfaction for which is therein asked; and if any such payment or indemnification has been made, to set forth when, and from whom the same was received.
